PARIS SIGHTSEEING – EIFFEL TOWER & LOUVRE MUSEUM [B/L/-]

After breakfast, check out of your hotel and meet your tour guide around 9:00 am to discover Paris's most celebrated sights and monuments. Drive past the iconic Arc de Triomphe, the exterior of the Louvre, the ornate Palais Garnier opera house, Place Vendôme, Place de la Concorde and the glamorous Champs-Élysées, before heading to the Eiffel Tower. Ascend to the second floor with your guide, hearing the history and legends behind Paris's most famous icon as panoramic views of the city unfold below, with help identifying the landmarks you have just visited. Following lunch at a local restaurant, continue to the Louvre Museum for the specialty "Black Images in the Louvre" tour, where your licensed guide leads you through room after room, pointing out images of Black peoples often overlooked within these grand works and explaining their artistic and cultural significance. Your guide will also walk you through the Louvre's greatest masterpieces, including the Venus de Milo, the Coronation of Napoleon I, and Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa, offering insight into centuries of rich artistic history before you enjoy some free time to explore further at your own pace. Your day concludes with drop-off at the hotel around 5:30 pm.

DAY 4 | 18 Sep, 2027

DAY FREE AT LEISURE [B/-/-]

Savor a relaxed breakfast before a full day free to explore Paris at your own pace. Vehicle is arranged from 11:00 Am to 5:00 Pm for visiting Boutiques and shopping.

Add-on: Palace of Versailles with private transfers : USD 360 Per person (Minimum 6 travelers)

Experience the height of French luxury with our guided tour of the stunning Versailles Palace, a magnificent symbol of grandeur commissioned by Louis XIV, the Sun King, in the 1600s. This exclusive tour begins with a pickup from your Paris hotel. Skip the long lines with priority access and enter through a separate entrance, accompanied by an expert guide. Explore the splendor and history of Versailles Palace on an engaging tour, and then head to the famed gardens, either with your guide or at your own pace.

Inside the palace, visit the State Apartments, the King's Bedroom, and the iconic Hall of Mirrors. Learn about the key figures of the French monarchy, including King Louis XIV and Marie Antoinette. Hear captivating stories about historical events that unfolded in the palace's rooms, then step outside to explore the expansive gardens, either with a guide or independently.

Admire the grandeur of the gardens, featuring bronze statues, ornamental basins, and rows of towering trees. If you choose the guided option, gain fascinating insights into the design and history of the gardens. You can also opt to visit Marie-Antoinette's private estate and her famous hamlet. Enjoy leisurely time in the meticulously landscaped French-style gardens, designed by André Le Nôtre, and take in views of the Grand and Petit Trianons.

BLACK HISTORY OF PARIS ORIENTATION & SIGHTSEEING WITH LUNCH [B/L/-]

Enjoy your breakfast before your hotel pick-up around 9:30 am, when you will immerse yourself in Paris's Black history with a specialist guide. Begin with a 30-minute Black Paris Orientation, then stroll to the Arc de Triomphe to hear of the first great wave of African Americans arriving in Paris in the 1800s and the Black soldiers who distinguished themselves on French battlefields during both World Wars. Continue past the Champs-Élysées mansion where Thomas Jefferson and Sally Hemings began their relationship in 1787, then head to Parc Monceau to follow in the footsteps of Frederick Douglass, W.E.B. Du Bois, Henry O. Tanner, Mary Church Terrell, Ida B. Wells, Langston Hughes and Mary McLeod Bethune, among other trailblazers, before standing before the monument marking France's abolition of the African slave trade and the statues honoring the Dumas family, including Alexandre Dumas himself. Hear the remarkable story of Toussaint L'Ouverture near the Haitian Consulate, pass the church dedicated to African Saint Augustine, and continue to Place de la Madeleine, site of Josephine Baker's state funeral, and Place de la Concorde, home to the ancient African Obelisk brought from Luxor's Temple of Thebes. Your guide will bring to life the legendary African American performers who graced the stages of the Olympia Concert Hall and the Opéra Garnier, before you explore "Little Africa" at the vibrant Château Rouge market and drive through historic Montmartre, once known as "The Harlem of Paris," along with sites connected to James Baldwin, Richard Wright and other Diaspora writers. After lunch at a local restaurant, visit the Church of the Black Madonna to see the storied Notre-Dame de Bonne-Délivrance, then stop at Place Joséphine Baker for a group photo near the site of her final performance. You will be dropped off at the hotel around 5:30 pm, with the evening left free to wander Paris's leafy boulevards at your own pace.
