ITINERARY

DAY 1 | 07 Jun, 2026

Depart Los Angeles [-/-/-]

Prepare yourself! You are leaving today for Dublin to start your Highlights of Ireland tour.

DAY 2 | 08 Jun, 2026

Dublin Arrival [-/-/-]

Upon your arrival at Dublin Airport, retrieve your luggage and head to the Arrivals Hall, where our representative will be there to meet you and help with your transfer to the hotel. The hotel's standard check-in time is at 3:00 PM, but if you arrive earlier, the reception staff will gladly store your luggage until your room is ready. With no planned activities for the day, you have the freedom to unwind and explore Dublin at your own pace. Take a leisurely stroll through the city's picturesque streets, enjoy a refreshing drink at one of its historic pubs, or indulge in some delicious Irish cuisine at a local restaurant. After your exploration, retire for a peaceful night's sleep, knowing that tomorrow will begin what we hope will be an unforgettable journey, filled with new experiences and cherished memories!

DAY 3 | 09 Jun, 2026

Dublin - Dublin City tour & Guinness Storehouse [B/-/D]

After breakfast, your Dublin adventure begins with a visit to EPIC: The Irish Emigration Museum, recently voted "Europe's Leading Tourist Attraction." This museum offers an insightful tour into the story of the millions of people who left, or were forced to leave, Ireland over the past three centuries. It is located in Dublin's Docklands. Next, you'll head to Christ Church Cathedral, founded nearly 1,000 years ago in 1034 by the Viking King Sitric. The cathedral's crypt is one of the largest in both the UK and Ireland, dating back to the 12th century. In the crypt, you can view the mummified remains of a cat and a rat, which were discovered in the cathedral's organ, along with a rare 14th-century copy of the Magna Carta.

Your day continues with a visit to the Guinness Storehouse, located at the iconic St. James's Gate. Here, you'll explore the renowned brewery and enjoy a complimentary pint of Guinness at the Gravity Bar, situated atop a glass tower offering breathtaking views of Dublin City

Evening enjoy dinner at Morehampton* with Glass of Wine

Overnight in Dublin

DAY 4 | 10 Jun, 2026

Dublin - Clonmacnoise - Galway City [B/-/-]

After a hearty full Irish breakfast, we will head towards Galway City, traveling west through Ballinasloe and Athlone, located in the heart of Ireland.

Our first stop will be Clonmacnoise, a medieval monastery situated on the banks of the River Shannon. Founded by St. Ciaran in the 6th century, Clonmacnoise was a key center of medieval Ireland, connecting various parts of the island. Despite being repeatedly raided by Vikings, the site thrived for over 600 years.

We will then continue our journey towards Galway City, famously known as the "City of the Tribes." Upon arrival, you'll enjoy a panoramic tour of this historic city, including a visit to Eyre Square. You'll have time to explore the Salthill Promenade, a designated Wild Atlantic Way discovery point, or take a stroll down Shop Street to Galway's Latin Quarter. Here, you'll find Lynch's Castle, the city's grandest 16th-century townhouse. End your day with a leisurely walk along Quay Street, lined with lively pubs and street performers.

Overnight in Galway

DAY 5 | 11 Jun, 2026

Galway - Kylemore Abbey & Wild Atlantic Way [B/-/-]

Today, you will explore the rugged beauty of Connemara, passing through the villages of Moycullen, Oughterard, Maam Cross, and Recess. You'll then travel through the stunning Inagh Valley, with the 12 Bens of Connemara on your left and the Maumturks Mountains on your right, as you head towards Kylemore.

Your first stop will be Kylemore Abbey, a historic building located at the base of Duchruach Mountain, on the northern shore of Lough Pollacappul, nestled in the heart of the Connemara Mountains. The abbey is considered one of Ireland's most picturesque and romantic landmarks.

Next, you'll travel along the shores of Killary Fjord, Ireland's only fjord and a designated Wild Atlantic Way signature discovery point, located on the border between Mayo and Galway. Afterward, you will cross into Mayo and visit the village of Cong, famously known as the filming location for The Quiet Man, where you'll have a short break.

Finally, you'll return to Galway City via the scenic shores of Lough Corrib, the largest lake in the Republic of Ireland, renowned for being one of the best fishing lakes in Europe.

Overnight in Galway

DAY 6 | 12 Jun, 2026

Galway - The Burren & Cliffs of Moher - Kerry [B/-/D]

This morning, we'll set off early along the Atlantic coastline of County Clare, heading towards Killarney Town. Your journey today will take you past the scenic Galway Bay, the historic Dunguaire Castle, and the charming fishing village of Kinvarra.

You'll also visit The Burren, a vast limestone plateau, aptly named as "Burren" means "rocky land" in Gaelic. In the 1640s, Cromwell's surveyor described it as "a savage land, yielding neither water enough to drown a man, nor tree to hang him, nor soil enough to bury."

On the coast, you'll stand atop the Cliffs of Moher, towering 702 feet (214 meters) above the Atlantic Ocean. This dramatic stretch of cliffs, extending for 9 miles (14 km), is a signature discovery point along the Wild Atlantic Way, offering breathtaking views of the vast ocean.

Further south in County Limerick, take a leisurely stroll down the main street of Adare, a picturesque village known for its thatched cottages, before continuing on to Killarney Town.

Overnight in Kerry

DAY 7 | 13 Jun, 2026

Kerry - Ring of Kerry including Lunch [B/L/D]

After breakfast this morning, you'll embark on the renowned Ring of Kerry, also known as the Iveragh Peninsula. Take a traditional horse-drawn jaunting car through Killarney National Park to scenic Ross Castle, set on the shores of Lough Leane. Your journey will take you through the villages of Killorglin, Glenbeigh, Cahersiveen, and Waterville, before passing the stunning Coomakesta Pass, offering panoramic views of Derrynane, the birthplace of Daniel O'Connell, "The Liberator." From there, you'll continue to Caherdaniel, passing through the quaint hamlet of Castlecove, the vibrant village of Sneem, and on through Moll's Gap, Ladies View, Killarney National Park, and along the scenic Lakes of Killarney to Killarney Town.

During the day, you'll enjoy a traditional Irish pub lunch at Blind Piper Pub in Caherdaniel, a beloved spot frequented by both locals and visitors since 1865. The pub's name comes from Mici Cumba O'Sullivan, the Blind Piper, born nearby in 1835, who became one of Ireland's most famous pipers.

After lunch, continue your journey along the Ring of Kerry, passing through the charming village of Sneem, Moll's Gap, Ladies View, and alongside the picturesque Killarney Lakes, making your way to Killarney Town.

Overnight in Kerry

DAY 8 | 14 Jun, 2026

Kerry - Blarney Castle & Midleton Distillery Experience - Waterford [B/-/-]

After a hearty Irish breakfast this morning, you will head towards Cork City, located along the banks of the River Lee. Known as the "Rebel City," Cork is famous for being the home of Murphy's Original Irish Stout and is proudly considered by many locals as the true capital of Ireland.

Your journey will take you westward through the rugged Derrynasaggart Mountains, also known as the Cork/Kerry Mountains, which are immortalized in the famous ballad "Whiskey in the Jar."

Next, you'll travel to the village of Blarney, passing through the picturesque River Lee valley. In Blarney, you'll visit the historic Blarney Castle, originally built in 1446 by Dermot McCarthy. Here, you'll have the chance to kiss the famous Blarney Stone, believed to grant the gift of eloquence. You will also have time to browse the Blarney Woollen Mills, where you can shop for a wide range of Irish arts, crafts, and local goods.

Your next stop will be Midleton Town, where you'll enjoy a guided tour of the Midleton Distillery Experience. Here, you'll see the world's largest pot still, with a capacity of over 30,000 gallons. Finally you will arrive in Waterford Town for your overnight stay.

Overnight in Waterford

DAY 9 | 15 Jun, 2026

Waterford - Sightseeing [B/-/-]

After breakfast, enjoy a panoramic tour of Waterford, the oldest city in Ireland. A walled city with Viking origins, Waterford retains much of its medieval charm, alongside elegant 18th-century buildings from its expansion. Similar to Kilkenny, Waterford has a medieval feel with narrow alleyways branching off the main streets. Reginald's Tower stands as a symbol of the city's Viking heritage, and the surrounding area is especially picturesque. Georgian architecture is prominent, with fine houses and commercial buildings around The Mall, George's Street, and O'Connell Street. Notable sights include the French Church and Christchurch Cathedral. Today, Waterford is known as a thriving port and commercial hub.

Later, visit the Waterford Crystal Visitor Centre, which relocated in 2010 to a stunning new location in the heart of the city. A highlight of your visit is the factory tour, offering a close-up look at the centuries-old craft of Waterford Crystal making. Experience the heat of the furnace and witness the expertise of the craftsmen. The tour covers traditional production areas such as wooden mould making, crystal blowing, furnace work, crystal cutting, and quality inspection. After the tour, you can browse the world's largest collection of Waterford Crystal at the centre's lavish retail store. The centre also features an exhibition, crystal installations, a coffee shop, and a worldwide shipping service.

In the afternoon, head to Kinsale, a picturesque town known as Ireland's Gourmet Capital. Originally a medieval fishing port, Kinsale is one of the most scenic towns on the southwest coast. Don't miss Boland's Craft Shop, one of the many unique stores that make Kinsale a charming place to explore.

DAY 10 | 16 Jun, 2026

Waterford - Rock of Cashel & Irish National Stud including lunch- Dublin [B/L/-]

After breakfast this morning, you'll head towards Dublin, Ireland's capital. Along the way, you'll visit The Rock of Cashel, a striking landmark rising from the green plains of County Tipperary. Once the seat of kings and bishops for nearly 900 years, it thrived until the early 17th century. Brian Ború was crowned King of Munster here in 977 before becoming the High King of Ireland in 1002.

After lunch, you'll visit the Irish National Stud, a state-operated breeding farm established in 1900 by Colonel William Walker, an eccentric Anglo-Irishman. After your tour of the stud farm, take a leisurely walk through the Japanese Gardens, which were created in 1906 to symbolize the "Life of Man."

In the afternoon, you will return to Dublin City. The evening is free for you to enjoy at your leisure in Dublin, and what better way to experience the city than by exploring its vibrant nightlife. Head over to Temple Bar, Dublin's lively cultural quarter, known for its cobblestone streets, bustling atmosphere, and rich history. This area is famous for its wide range of restaurants, pubs, and bars, offering everything from traditional Irish music to contemporary beats. Whether you're in the mood for a casual pint of Guinness at one of the many historic pubs, or you'd like to dine in one of Temple Bar's renowned restaurants serving up delicious Irish fare, there's something for every taste.
