Overview

Greece, located in southeastern Europe, is a captivating blend of ancient history, rich mythology, and stunning natural beauty. As the birthplace of Western civilization, it offers visitors a unique journey through time, especially in Athens—home to iconic sites like the Acropolis and Parthenon, alongside vibrant neighborhoods and bustling markets. Beyond the capital, Greece's islands shine with their own charm: Santorini enchants with its blue-domed churches and sunsets, while Mykonos draws visitors with its lively nightlife and scenic views. Greek cuisine, known for its fresh Mediterranean flavors, features favorites like moussaka, souvlaki, and baklava, complemented by local wines and spirits. Whether you're drawn by history, beaches, adventure, or warm hospitality, Greece promises an unforgettable experience that keeps travelers coming back..

DAY 6 | 18 Sep, 2025

Santorini - Santorini highlights with wine tasting tour [B/L/-]

Today and learn everything about the island's culture. Your day starts when you're picked up from one of the designated collection points, which will be either your hotel, a point near your hotel, or a point near Santorini cruise port. Your first stop will be the Profitis Ilias monastery. Situated 567 meters above sea level, Mount Profitis Ilias is the highest of all the mountains on Santorini and will offer you a panoramic view of the whole of the island, where you can take some of the most amazing pictures. The tour continues to the Ventsanos Winery. Here for approximately one hour, you will discover the art of winemaking, Santorini style. Enjoy a tour of the winery and a tasting experience. The winery's unique location provides the best panoramic view of the Caldera to enjoy the high quality of wines. Next, you will head to the village of Akrotiri to visit the Lighthouse. Here, you'll be able to admire the geological formation of Santorini. Continuing the route off the main tourist trail, you'll discover the hidden beauty of Santorini. The English-speaking drivers will be on hand to make this a memorable day. Passing through the red and black beach via some local villages, you will reach the most traditional village of Santorini Pyrgos, well known for its lovely paths and of course the Venetian Castle. In Pyrgos, the lunch stop takes place in a local tavern, giving you the opportunity to taste authentic Greek cuisine and the local wines. To close the day, you will return to your hotel via an asphalt route, full of memories of the authentic Santorinian way of life, its islanders, their history, religion, and agriculture.
