VANCOUVER - KAMLOPPS ON BOARD THE ROCKY MOUNTAINEER TRAIN

A lonesome wail sounds from the train whistle, and the smell of your breakfast drifts from the galley, as the Rocky Mountaineer leaves Vancouver on the first leg of its journey through the Canadian Rockies. Over lunch you'll climb the steep Fraser Canyon, past the thundering water of Hell's Gate, and take a trip through the high desert of British Columbia's interior. Relax, chat, read, or stretch your legs while taking in the unique scenery of British Columbia. This evening, your train arrives in the small town of Kamloops where you are free to enjoy a dinner on your own and a night in a standard hotel.

Overnight in Kamloops.

DAY 4 | 08 Jun, 2025

KAMLOOPS - LAKE LOUISE ON BOARD THE ROCKY MOUNTAINEER TRAIN

The second day onboard the Rocky Mountaineer, anticipation builds over breakfast for your first sighting of the high peaks of the Canadian Rockies. Along the way, you'll learn about the natural history of the mountains, as well as the railroad. Keep your eyes peeled for elk, bald eagles and bears. Finally, you enter the famous Spiral Tunnels " ascending slowly, round and round through the darkness, until, blinking, you emerge to find yourself high in the Canadian Rockies, surrounded by mighty peaks. A shuttle takes you to your hotel, where you'll see the most famous view on your trip " the turquoise water of Lake Louise. Surrounded by glaciers tumbling off mountain peaks and fragrant pine forest, this is a place to relax and rejuvenate.

Overnight in Lake Louise.
