Johannesburg Sightseeing
[B/L/-]

After breakfast, meet with the tour guide at the hotel in Johannesburg and depart to explore the vibrant sights and sounds of Soweto and Johannesburg, Africa's economic powerhouse. The tour delves into the political and historical significance of the struggle against apartheid, and visits key memorial sites, such as the Apartheid Museum, Soweto's suburbs, and informal settlements.

Our first stop is at Apartheid Museum, exploring the exhibits that cover the turbulent history of the Apartheid era in South Africa. It offers a comprehensive overview of South Africa's Apartheid era, from the onset of segregation to the implementation of the Apartheid system, and covers all of the factors that have shaped the country's 20th-century history, including the discovery of gold, black consciousness, and the first democratic elections. Next, depart for Mandela House and spend some time touring the national monument and learning about Nelson Mandela's personal life and the families that he lived with from 1946 to 1990.

Continue to Constitutional Hill in Braamfontein, a former prison and military fort that now houses South Africa's Constitutional Court. Explore the isolation cells, where famous political activists such as Mahatma Gandhi, Nelson Mandela, and Walter Sisulu were held, the Women's Gaol that housed Winnie Mandela and others, and many other cells, as well as the awaiting trial building. Next head to the Hector Peterson Memorial, to pay respects to those who lost their lives during the Soweto uprising, and learn about the pivotal moment in the anti-Apartheid struggle.

The tour concludes with a visit to the cultural hub of Vilakazi Street and the historic suburb of Orlando West before your guide drives you back to your Johannesburg hotel.

DAY 4 | 07 Sep, 2024

Johannesburg - Victoria Falls
[B/-]

After having breakfast in the morning, you will travel to Johannesburg airport to catch your flight to Victoria Falls. Upon arrival, meet your guide and head to Victoria Falls National Park. The sound of the falls, audible from several kilometers away, will greet you upon entrance to the park. Walk along a paved path that leads to different viewpoints of the falls. The guide will provide information about the geology and history of the area, pointing out the various sections of the falls. Take some time to stop at Devil's Cataract and Main Falls to capture some photographs and enjoy the stunning views. Bring rain gear and be prepared to get wet from the falls.

The tour includes a visit to the Livingstone Statue and information about the explorer's discovery of the falls. See local wildlife, such as baboons and elephants, in their natural habitat. Once you have explored the falls, take a lunch break at one of the nearby cafes or restaurants. Tour guides can recommend options based on your preferences. Make sure to bring your rain gear and be prepared to get wet from the falls. Afterward, check-in at the hotel, and it's time to relax.

In the evening, enjoy a sunset cruise on the Zambezi River to conclude the day. While sipping on drinks and munching on snacks, admire the sunset over the falls and watch for hippos, crocodiles, as well as other wildlife that come to the river to drink.

DAY 9 | 12 Sep, 2024

Cape Town - Table Mountain, City Tour and Robben Island Tour [B/-/]

After having breakfast, meet your tour guide and head to the ferry terminal located at the V&A Waterfront to board a ferry to Robben Island, home to Nelson Mandela, the father of the nation, for 18 years during his imprisonment. The ferry will arrive at Murray's Harbor on the east coast of the island, and from there, it is a short walk to buses that will go to all the historically significant sites on the island. The tour guides inside the prison are former political prisoners, and their knowledge of the island is unparalleled, adding a unique cultural layer to the experience. The tour will end with a visit to Nelson Mandela's cell.

After returning from Robben Island, take a trip to the top of Table Mountain, one of Cape Town's most iconic landmarks. Table Mountain is considered one of the seven wonders of nature and attracts millions of visitors from around the world. The aerial cableway to the top has been in operation since 1929, and over 22 million people have made the trip to the top. At the upper cable station, visitors will find a restaurant, a curio shop, and footpaths for exploring. Sightseeing tours continue with visits to the Company Gardens, the South African Museum, and the Castle of Good Hope, which is the oldest surviving colonial building in South Africa. The castle was built between 1666 and 1679 by the Dutch East India Company

Post-tour, the evening is free to explore the vibrant V&A Waterfront, where you can relax at a café, enjoy a glass of South Africa's famous wine, or browse through the local art and craft shops.
