ITINERARY

DAY 1 DEPART FOR MOROCCO

Prepare yourself! You are leaving today for Casablanca to start your unbelievable Best of Morocco Journey.

DAY 2 CASABLANCA ARRIVAL [-/-/-]

Welcome to Morocco! Upon your arrival at Casablanca Airport, be on the lookout for the Travel Talk sign indicating your transfer to the hotel. Once settled in, get refreshed and join us in the lobby at around 7:00 pm for an informal gathering with your guide and other tour companions. Following this, you'll have free time to either commence your exploration of lively Casablanca or opt to join the group for an optional dinner, providing an opportunity to socialize with your fellow travelers.

Overnight in Casablanca

DAY 3 CASABLANCA - RABAT - FES [B/-/-]

Today you will drive to Fes, which is a significant city in Morocco's heritage. Look out the window and watch the scenic landscape as you make your way to Rabat, which is where you will stop for lunch. Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is a modern city that is located on the beach. Rabat is not much of a tourist city, which gives it a down-to-earth feel.

While in Rabat, you will be able to stop at a local restaurant and try the delicious Moroccan food...it's always best when it's not found in a tourist restaurant but at a local place. Drive by the residence of Morocco's king or take a walk down a palm tree lined boulevard...

As you drive into Fes, you'll come through a modern New City before you reach the Medina, founded in the 9th century. This medieval city doesn't allow any cars inside, so you'll see donkeys carrying loads in through the large ornate gates. It's packed with over 9,000 small streets, some of which are so small that you'll have to walk through single file! Imagine stepping into a way of life that has been preserved for centuries.

Overnight in Fes

DAY 4 FES TOUR [B/-/-]

You'll be glad of your professional guide as you make your way through these twisting streets. Imagine passing open air markets piled with colorful fruits and vegetables. A few shops down, a woman is picking up chicken from the butcher to bring home for tagine...

You'll see cats sitting lazily by carts selling bright mint leaves-probably tempting you to stop for a glass of sweet mint tea. You'll walk by a spice shop, or "Berber pharmacy," and smell flowery perfumes and exotic spices.

You'll visit the weavers. Picture yourself ducking into a small dark doorway and ending up in an airy courtyard filled with the sound of looms clacking. On the wall are rainbows of scarves and blankets, soft to the touch. Imagine climbing up what seems like a hundred stairs to look out over the impressive tanneries, trying to mask the strong smell of the rich dye with your small mint sprig.

Not only will your guide explain the history of the stops you make, but he'll also give insight into the deeper cultural beliefs that you might not always see at first.

You'll get to stop for lunch at one of our favorite restaurants where they'll wow you with their flavorful food. Count the number of different salads you taste...you'll be amazed!

A comfortable night in your riad or hotel will be welcome after this full day of adventure.

Overnight in Fes

DAY 5 VOLUBILIS - MEKNES - FES [B/-/-]

Imagine seeing remnants of the Roman Empire before your very eyes...

When you visit Volubilis, you'll see storks nests on top of tall roofless pillars. The old mosaics are worn with time but it is easy to see the color and design that used to be so magnificent. Your guide will bring these 2,000-year-old ruins to life in front of you, showing you the old olive oil press and pointing out where different buildings were located.

You'll also get to catch a glimpse of Moulay Idris, one of the most holy cities in Morocco. Named for the Muslim saint and founder of Fes, this town is pretty with its white walls and prominent green roofs.

Meknes, another imperial city, will be your stopping point for lunch. You'll drive around the city and marvel at Bab Mansour, built to honor Sultan Moulay Ismail. This gate is decorated to perfection with zelij tiles and detailed engraving. You'll also stop at the Royal Stables of Moulay Ismail and the ancient granaries.

Overnight in Fes

DAY 6 FES - MARRAKECH [B/-/]

Today will be the longest drive of the tour, but the route from Fes to Marrakech is filled with beautiful sights. You'll drive up into the Middle Atlas Mountains and wind along the base of the High Atlas Mountains. Take in the natural landscape...it will be a wonderful change of scenery! Ask your driver what he thinks you shouldn't miss in Marrakech.

A fun way to see the city is with a horse and carriage ride. Imagine the clip clop of the horse's hooves on the road, the breeze and Marrakech sights rolling past you. You'll pull up by the Jma El Fnaa, the big square of Marrakech, which is full of activity at almost all times. If you go in the evening, you'll be able to see it when it is most energetic.

Stalls of food are set up everywhere, with vendors calling out their specialties. Fresh juices, dried fruit, hot meals...your stomach will be content if you allow yourself to sample the treats. If you are feeling bold, take a picture of yourself holding the snake from the snake charmer! Your friends will love to see the evidence.

Overnight in Marrakech

DAY 7 MARRAKECH TOUR [B/-/]

Today you'll find out more about why Marrakech is a favorite to travelers all around the world. Its popularity is only growing as more people find out about it, and everyone who visits leaves understanding the obsession.

Your guide will take you to the Koutoubia mosque, the largest mosque in Marrakech. Lean back to see how it reaches into the sky...

Imagine walking through the souks in the medina. Some of the most notable stalls are the ones filled with lanterns, sending out glittery flecks of colored light. Silver, brass, spices and soft material surround you as you pass through the stalls, wondering which one to stop at.

Your guide will take you to the Bahia palace, the old residence of the grand viziers, Si Moussa and his son, Bou Ahmed. Its name means "brilliance" and you'll understand why as you explore the gardens and salons. The Saadian tombs are another must-see of Marrakech. These tombs, forgotten about for years, are where many from the royal Saadian dynasty are buried. This might be the most beautiful burial site you'll ever see...the tombs are covered in flawless zellij patterns and lavish artwork.

Overnight in Marrakech

DAY 8 MARRAKECH [B/-/]

This morning is your last full day in Morocco, but it is a relaxed one so you can do all that last minute shopping or exploring you wanted to do! Go pick up a lantern for your house back home, sip a cup of orange juice, or return to see if that shopkeeper would finally budge on the bargain you wanted.

When you are ready, you and your driver will head towards Casablanca, where your fantastic trip began only a week ago.

Overnight in Marrakech
