DAY 5 Rome - Florence [B/-/-]

After breakfast, we will depart from Rome and travel north towards Florence, known as the birthplace of the Italian Renaissance. On the way, we will pass through the beautiful Tuscany region, famous for its stunning rolling hills, vineyards, olive groves, and charming medieval towns perched on hilltops. As we continue through the Chianti area, we will eventually reach Florence, a captivating city famous for its wealth of Renaissance-era art and architecture.

Our first stop will be at Piazza Michelangelo, where we can take in a breathtaking panoramic view of the city. We will then head to the historic center to visit the most significant artistic and architectural treasures, including Piazza del Duomo, which is home to the Santa Maria del Fiore Cathedral, the Baptistery of San Giovanni, and the Giotto Campanile, all made with priceless colored marbles. Next, we will visit Piazza della Signoria, the city's historical center of civil life, featuring the Fountain of Neptune and the Palazzo della Signoria or Palazzo Vecchio, one of Florence's most recognizable landmarks. The Accademia Gallery, another important museum, will also be visited where visitors can see Michelangelo's world-famous David and other magnificent paintings by Filippino Lippi, Domenico Ghirlandaio, and more.

At the Accademia Gallery, you will hear secret stories about the artworks and artists featured in the gallery, as well as ancient tales of the powerful Medici family, who were important to Michelangelo and the birth of the Renaissance in Florence.

The rest of the day is yours to explore, and in the evening, you can dine at any of the wide variety of restaurants in the district, offering Italian and international cuisine.

Today is free to explore places on your own in order to get a true sense of where you are. Explore the Piazza del Duomo, the main square in Florence which is home to some of the city's most famous landmarks, including the Florence Cathedral, the Baptistery, and Giotto's Campanile. Take a stroll around the square and marvel at the stunning architecture, walk along the Ponte Vecchio, a medieval bridge that spans the Arno River and is lined with shops selling jewelry, art, and souvenirs. Take a leisurely stroll across the bridge and enjoy the views of the river and the city. Sample the local cuisine, Florence is famous for its food, and there are plenty of restaurants and cafes serving delicious Tuscan cuisine. Try some of the city's specialties, such as bistecca alla Fiorentina (Florentine steak), ribollita (a hearty soup), and gelato, or pre-book one of our suggested optional tours

Add-on -Siena, Chianti, San Gimignano Day trip from Florence including Lunch - USD 115 Per person (minimum 20 pax)

Starting from Florence, this tour takes you on a southbound journey through the picturesque Tuscan countryside, passing by vineyards and reaching the medieval hill town of San Gimignano, known for its remarkable towers and frescoes. You will have some free time to wander around the town's streets on your own before heading to Monteriggioni for a brief visit. The next stop is the delightful village of Chianti, where you will visit a hilltop winery and have the opportunity to taste some excellent local wines along with snacks. Later, you will relish a 3-course Chianti-style lunch. Finally, you will proceed to Siena, where you will explore Renaissance artwork with your guide before embarking on a walking tour. You will marvel at the unique striped marble of the Siena Cathedral and, if you've chosen to upgrade your tour, enter the cathedral for a guided tour. Your tour will culminate with transportation back to Florence..

Add-on - Full-day trip to Cinque Terre including Lunch - USD 145 Per person (minimum 20 pax)

The beautiful coastal region in Italy called the Cinque Terre, which means "five lands," consists of five unique fishing villages. Meet your guide and board a coach to travel to the coast. The first stop is the oldest village, Riomaggiore, which dates back to the 13th century. The town is famous for its wine and scenic views, with colorful buildings lining the cobble streets. The second village is Manarola, a small village with medieval remnants and vineyards. Take a walk along the harbor and snap photos of the bright buildings nestled on the cliffs. If the weather is suitable, you will take a boat to Monterosso. If you have opted for lunch, you will enjoy a delicious seafood and pasta meal accompanied by wine and water in one of the village's restaurants. After lunch, you can explore the village or relax on Monterosso's beautiful beaches. Finally, you will visit Vernazza, a village famous for its terraced olive groves that produce some of Italy's finest olive oil. You can wander around the busy square and narrow streets before heading back to Florence.
