OVERVIEW

Your journey begins with arrival at Zagreb airport and a private transfer to your hotel. You then discover Croatia's capital with a local English-speaking guide, exploring the medieval Upper Town with its narrow streets and St. Mark's Church, and the Lower Town with its parks, museums and lively cafes. Travelling south, you stop at the UNESCO-listed Plitvice Lakes National Park for a guided walk among its terraced lakes and waterfalls before reaching the Adriatic coast at Split. In Split, a local guide brings the city to life, from the Roman walls of Diocletian's Palace to the lively Riva promenade. You then continue to Dubrovnik, the Pearl of the Adriatic, for a guided visit of its UNESCO-listed Old Town, with its stone streets, historic harbour and rich Mediterranean heritage. Throughout the journey, comfortable private transfers and local English-speaking guides take care of every detail. Your tour concludes in Dubrovnik with a transfer to the airport, leaving you with lasting memories of Croatia's cities, landscapes and heritage.

ITINERARY

DAY 1 DEPART FOR CROATIA [-/-/-]

Get ready! You are flying today for Croatia to begin your unforgettable coastal adventure of turquoise lakes and walled towns by the sea.

DAY 2 ZAGREB – ARRIVAL [-/-/-]

Welcome to Croatia! Upon arrival at Zagreb airport you will be transferred to your hotel. Standard check-in time applies. The rest of the day is at your leisure.

Overnight in Zagreb

DAY 3 ZAGREB CITY TOUR [B/-/-]

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel, then transfer to the city centre, where your local English-speaking guide awaits for a visit of Zagreb. Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, is a charming city that blends historic architecture with a lively modern atmosphere. Explore the medieval Upper Town (Gornji Grad), with its narrow streets, St. Mark's Church and panoramic views, or stroll through the Lower Town (Donji Grad), known for its parks, museums and vibrant cafes. Enjoy a relaxed pace, rich cultural heritage and a welcoming local spirit. Your guide leads you through the Upper Town to landmarks such as the Stone Gate and St. Mark's Church with its colourful tiled roof, sharing the stories behind the old streets and squares. You then descend to the Lower Town to see Ban Jelačić Square, Zagreb Cathedral and the lively Dolac market, where you can sample local flavours and soak up the everyday atmosphere of the city. Return to your hotel by private transfer, with the rest of the day at your leisure.

Overnight in Zagreb

DAY 4 ZAGREB – NP PLITVICE LAKES – SPLIT [B/-/-]

Breakfast at the hotel, then start your private transfer from Zagreb to Split. On the way, stop at NP Plitvice Lakes for a visit with a local English-speaking guide. Plitvice Lakes National Park is one of the most beautiful natural attractions in Croatia and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is famous for its 16 terraced lakes connected by a series of stunning waterfalls, all surrounded by lush forests and diverse wildlife. Wooden walkways and hiking trails allow you to explore the park up close, with breathtaking views of crystal-clear turquoise water. Your guide leads you along the wooden boardwalks and footbridges that wind between the lakes, past the Upper and Lower Lakes and close to the Great Waterfall, and explains how the lakes and travertine barriers formed over thousands of years. Take your time for photographs at the many viewpoints before continuing your journey. After the visit, continue to Split.

Overnight in Split

DAY 5 SPLIT [B/-/-]

After breakfast at the hotel, then transfer to the city centre, where your local English-speaking guide awaits for a visit of Split. Split is a vibrant coastal city known for its mix of ancient history and Mediterranean charm. The highlight of the visit is Diocletian's Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the best-preserved Roman monuments in the world. Wander through narrow stone streets, enjoy lively squares and relax along the scenic Riva promenade, with beautiful sea views and a relaxed atmosphere. With your guide you walk through the historic heart of Diocletian's Palace, passing landmarks such as the Peristyle, the Golden Gate and the statue of Gregory of Nin, and learn how a Roman emperor's retirement palace grew into a living city. After the tour, stroll along the Riva at your own pace, enjoy a coffee by the sea or browse the small shops and cafes inside the palace walls. Return to your hotel by private transfer, with the rest of the day at your leisure.

Overnight in Split

DAY 6 SPLIT – DUBROVNIK [B/-/-]

Breakfast at the hotel, then enjoy a private transfer from Split to Dubrovnik. The rest of the day is at your leisure.

Overnight in Dubrovnik

DAY 7 DUBROVNIK [B/-/-]

Following breakfast at the hotel, then transfer to the Old Town, where your local English-speaking guide awaits for a visit of Dubrovnik. Situated on the southern Adriatic Sea coast, Dubrovnik is usually regarded as the most picturesque city on the Dalmatian coast and is known as the “Pearl of the Adriatic.” Its Old Town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. During history it was an important harbour and a major centre of trade in the Mediterranean, and it remains steeped in a rich heritage of architecture and culture, nowhere more than in its stunning Old Town. Your guide takes you through the Pile Gate and along Stradun, the main street of the Old Town, past landmarks such as Onofrio’s Fountain, the Franciscan Monastery, Sponza Palace and the Rector’s Palace, and shares the story of the independent Republic of Ragusa. The tour also takes in the old harbour and the stone lanes that climb away from Stradun. Afterwards, enjoy the stone-paved streets and seaside cafes at your leisure. Return to your hotel by private transfer, with the rest of the day at your leisure.

Overnight in Dubrovnik

DAY 8 DUBROVNIK – DAY AT LEISURE [B/-/-]

Breakfast at the hotel. Enjoy a free day in Dubrovnik to relax, walk the city walls or explore at your own pace.

Overnight in Dubrovnik

DAY 9 DUBROVNIK – DEPARTURE [B/-/-]

Enjoy a final breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to Dubrovnik airport in time for your onward flight, carrying memories of Croatia’s most beautiful cities.

Note - The itinerary above may be modified without prior notice. The sequence of activities and scheduled visits may vary due to operational factors, including weather, traffic and venue availability. All reservations are on request. Optional excursions are not included in the package price.
