DAY 3 Barcelona - Sightseeing [B/-/-]

Meet your guide and hop aboard your vehicle to begin a captivating panoramic tour of Barcelona. Our journey will lead us through the city's highlights, including Ciutadella Park, Villa Olímpica, the Olympic Port, and the inviting shores of Barceloneta Beach. We'll then ascend Montjuic Mountain, a location closely associated with the 1992 Olympic Games, where you'll be treated to breathtaking vistas of Barcelona from the cable car. Our tour culminates at the MNAC viewpoint, known for offering some of the city's most splendid panoramic views. On our way back, our bus will traverse Paseo de Gracia, a pivotal street in Barcelona, affording you glimpses of the renowned Gaudí-designed buildings like Casa Batlló and La Pedrera.

Continuing our exploration, we'll delve into Barcelona's most iconic attraction: the Sagrada Família. Accompanied by a knowledgeable local guide, you'll gain insight into the history and significance of this architectural marvel. Prepare to be astounded by its breathtaking interior, which is replete with symbolism inspired by the natural world. As you roam freely within the nave, your guide's commentary, delivered through your headset, will unravel the intricacies of Gaudí's masterpiece. Witness the seamless fusion of architecture and spirituality as you absorb every minute detail. Stroll around the exterior facades, where the extraordinary level of detail will leave you in awe.

Later on, our tour takes you on a leisurely walking exploration of Barcelona's Born and Gothic Quarter. We'll meander through some of the city's most historically significant streets en route to the Barcelona Cathedral. During the guided tour, you'll have the chance to appreciate the intricate details adorning the facades of various buildings. As we traverse the labyrinthine streets of the old city, hidden treasures and stunning medieval sites will be unveiled, each with its own historical importance. Discover the secrets of the Born neighborhood as your guide leads you through its charming alleyways. On our way back to the bus, pause to admire the magnificent Gothic church of Santa Maria del Mar.

We'll then reboard our vehicle and proceed to the renowned Park Güell, nestled in the elevated part of the city. Here, on a guided tour of the park, you'll come to understand why it stands as one of Gaudí's most iconic works. Experience the full spectrum of Gaudí's remarkable talents and his organic design philosophy, which permeates the entire park. Did you know that Park Güell is designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site?

Our journey continues with a short ride to the Sant Pau Art Nouveau Masterpiece. While exploring the exterior of this architectural gem, your guide will provide insights into the site's history and the architectural concepts conceived by Lluís Domènech i Montaner.

DAY 4 Barcelona - Day free at leisure [B/-/-]

Enjoy a day of leisure in Barcelona, where you have the freedom to explore and indulge in the city's treasures at your own pace. Whether you choose to wander through the charming streets of the Gothic Quarter, relax on the sandy shores of Barceloneta Beach, or savor delicious Catalan cuisine at a local tapas restaurant, this day is yours to shape as you wish.

Take your time to discover the magic of this enchanting city on your terms or pre-book one of our suggested add-ons.

Add-on - Montserrat Tour from Barcelona - USD

Meet your guide and board your vehicle to reach the captivating Montserrat mountain. The mountain's unique shape has led to its name, which translates to "serrated mountain" in Catalan. This natural and cultural treasure was declared a National Park in 1987 to protect its beautiful landscapes. Accompanied by a local guide, explore the Monastery and learn about its history and architectural style. The Monastery is home to a community of 80 monks who follow the rule of Saint Benedict. Admire the Gothic and Renaissance features of the basilica and sanctuary. Discover the tale of the miraculous apparition of the Black Madonna and Child in the Santa Cova cave, which is believed to have happened in the 9th century. You will also have the opportunity to visit the Church of the monastery to see the wood carving of La Moreneta, the popular name for the Black Madonna. Apart from the main area, Montserrat also has many small churches and trails that you can explore at your leisure. After the guided tour, you will have free time to sample the finest liquors, purchase locally-made delicacies, or visit the audio-visual exhibition. Visit the basilica when the Boys' Choir performs. This choir is one of the oldest in Europe, and they sing every weekday at 1:00 pm. This option also provides skip-the-line access to La Moreneta, the Black Madonna.

DAY 6 Madrid - Sightseeing [B/-/-]

Commence your day with a guided tour of Madrid, allowing you to soak in the city's splendor from the comfort of your vehicle. Be sure to have your camera or smartphone ready to capture the unforgettable moments! Our journey commences as we depart from Plaza de Oriente and proceed towards the magnificent Puerta de Toledo, an architectural gem from the Napoleonic era. Along the way, we'll cross the city's oldest bridge, treating you to splendid vistas of the Royal Palace and the Almudena Cathedral nestled along the banks of the Manzanares River. Our route will lead us past Mayor Street, Puerta del Sol Square, and the charming Las Cortes Quarter, where you can admire the exquisite architecture of Old Madrid before reaching the enchanting Las Letras Quarter.

During the tour, your eyes will also be captivated by the Cibeles Fountain, a gathering spot for jubilant Real Madrid fans celebrating their team's victories, as well as the iconic Puerta de Alcalá, one of the city's historic gateways. To conclude this scenic journey, we'll travel along Paseo de la Castellana Street, offering you a glimpse of the renowned Santiago Bernabéu stadium before reaching the vibrant Colon Square.

No visit to Madrid would be complete without an exploration of the Prado Museum. Accompanied by your knowledgeable guide, you'll embark on an enlightening journey through the museum's hallowed halls, where you'll encounter masterpieces by European artists such as el Bosco, el Greco, Velazquez, Goya, and Rubens. Additionally, you'll gain insights into the original purpose of this remarkable building and discover why it now houses one of the world's most esteemed art collections, boasting over 1,000 paintings spanning four centuries.

Following this enriching museum experience, your guide will arrange for your return to your hotel. With the afternoon at your disposal, you'll have the freedom to explore Madrid's myriad wonders at your own pace. Delve into the local cuisine, visit other cultural institutions, or embrace the city's vibrant nightlife. Madrid offers an array of options to suit your interests and preferences. DAY 11 FATIMA - BATALHA - NAZARE - ALCOBACA - LISBON [B/L/-]

After breakfast, we take a heartfelt leave of the sacred town of Fátima, deeply moved by the spiritual tranquility it bestowed upon us. Our expedition continues with a palpable sense of excitement as we chart our course toward Batalha, a town that gleams brightly within the historical fabric of Portugal. Batalha's distinction lies in its awe-inspiring Manueline monastery, a true masterpiece that seamlessly weaves elements of Gothic and Renaissance architecture. As we draw near to this architectural marvel, we have the privilege of delving into its intricate details, while absorbing the rich tapestry of history that envelops it—a testament to the nation's profound artistic and cultural heritage.

Our journey then leads us further south, where we encounter the enchanting fishing village of Nazaré, a place that could easily grace the front of a postcard. This coastal gem oozes charm at every twist and turn, with its cobblestone streets gently meandering down to the seafront. Along the azure waters, colorful fishing vessels sway gracefully, creating a scene of unparalleled beauty. The picturesque vistas of Nazaré etch themselves into our memories, leaving an indelible mark.

Continuing our exploration, we make our way to Alcobaça, a town steeped in Medieval lore and crowned by majestic monuments. Here, you'll be enthralled by the grandeur of the Alcobaça Monastery, an esteemed UNESCO World Heritage Site. Within its hallowed walls, stories of centuries past come alive, beckoning you to step back in time and immerse yourself in the captivating history that surrounds you.

We will arrive in Lisbon in the evening. Upon arrival check in and relax
